BlackSalt Fish Market & Restaurant Spices Up Sundays with An Early Bird Brunch Menu and Drink Specials

Washington, D.C.–BlackSalt is giving Washingtonians a new reason to rise and shine on Sunday mornings with the debut of an updated brunch menu along with a variety of drink specials. Patrons can now get their weekly shopping done an hour earlier as the fish market will now be opening at 10 AM. After the shopping is done, guests are encouraged to have a seat at the 15-seat bar where coffee and a selection of pastries are available until the full brunch is served from 11 AM to 2 PM.

Brunch items are priced from $13 to $19 with standouts such as Louisiana poached eggs with Blue Shell crab, crawfish and Tasso ham topped with cayenne hollandaise; fried bay oyster po' boy served with field greens, BlackSalt bacon and chive aioli; House-made French toast with Nob Hill apples, spiced pecans and ginger mascarpone or Texas pink shrimp corn cakes with spiced pecans and maple Gastriqu. Guests can also choose from tempting sides like, herbed biscuits with house-made sausage gravy; cast iron corn cake short stack or Red Bliss potato hash which are priced from $2.50 to $5. A la carte options are tempting such as Susan's Granola with wildflower honey and crème fraîche; English scones with Devonshire cream and warm beignets priced from $4 to $7.

Specialty brunch drinks at BlackSalt include a Bacon infused Bloody Mary offered for $7 and Mimosas priced at $5. Guests can also start off their morning with a featured $1 oyster of the day.
