WHO:

Edward Sharpe and the Magnetic Zeros are an up and coming “indie folk-rock band” rapidly gaining popularity after releasing their debut EP, “Here Comes” in May 2009, followed by a full-length CD “Up from Below” in July 2009. The band has gained a cultish following among a dedicated fan base that is known to become overwhelmed “by euphoric joy” when they perform. Led by front man, Alex Ebert, the 11 member strong band draws musical inspiration from communal musical communities that were popular in Southern California in the 1960’s and early 1970’s. Edward Sharpe and the Magnetic Zeros are coming off of a blockbuster summer after having unforgettable performances at popular music festivals, Lollapalooza, Bonnaroo, Coachella and numerous other venues. The band will be performing in Washington, DC on Friday September 24 at the 9:30 Club and at Virgin Mobile FreeFest on Saturday September 25. Josh Madden, the brother of Good Charlotte singers Benji and Joel Madden, will serving as the guest DJ for the after party.
