Holiday Farmers and Artists Market Makes Shopping A Breeze

Olney, Maryland; (October 27, 2010)--The Olney Farmers and Artists Market is planning a very special one-day Holiday Market on Sunday, Dec. 5, from 11am-3pm. The Market is located on Route 108 and Prince Philip Drive, in front of the Montgomery General Hospital Thrift Shop in Olney, MD with ample parking and the event is free to the public.

Visitors can anticipate local farmers to have a bounty of fresh seasonal produce for sale along with a great assortment of wonderful holiday foods. For noshing there will be potato latkes, hot apple cider, hot chocolate and Zeke's signature coffee. A warming open fire will be maintained for making S'mores along with freshly roasted chestnuts to enjoy while shopping. For gift ideas, the Olney Market will have handmade jewelry and art for sale at this one-day event.

Special treats for adults and children alike include a visit from Santa, a Farm Animal Parade, a chef's cooking demo from Salt & Pepper., wine tastings and holiday gift-making at the Children's craft tent. So bundle up and head to Olney for a family friendly day of eating and shopping.
