Agora to Host Fundraiser to Benefit Earthquake Victims in Turkey

WHAT: Just days after a 7.2 magnitude earthquake struck Turkey, Agora announces a fundraiser to benefit Turkish Red Crescent (part of the International Red Cross and Red Crescent Movement). On Thursday, November 3rd, Agora will host a happy hour in their newly unveiled Solen Room, which translates to “Entertainment Room,” located on the second floor of the restaurant. With a $20 suggested donation, guests can enjoy unlimited Turkish appetizers as well as happy hour specials including $3 bottles of Efes, Mythos or Miller Lite; $4 Bacardi and Stoli drinks and $5 glasses of Turkish red and white wine. Additionally, thirty percent of the evening’s bar sales will also be donated to help victims of this disaster.

WHEN: Thursday, November 3rd from 6 PM to 9 PM.

WHERE: The Solen Room at Agora is located just steps from Dupont Circle at 1527 17th Street, NW, \(202\) 332-6767, www.agoradc.net.

WHY: On October 23, 2011 a destructive 7.2 magnitude earthquake struck eastern Turkey near the city of Van. According to Disasters and Emergency Situations Directorate of Turkey (AFAD) over 600 casualties have been reported, with thousands more injured.
