

For Immediate Release

Contact: Heather Freeman, (800) 987-9806

heather@heatherfreeman.com

Lindley Thornburg, (703) 593-5503

lindley@heatherfreeman.com

Newly Opened Cuba Libre Restaurant & Rum Bar to Donate All Food Sales
On October 28th to the Trust for the National Mall in Support of America's Front Yard

WHAT: Barry Gutin and Larry Cohen of GuestCounts Hospitality are pleased to announce a fundraiser to benefit the Trust for the National Mall. As a newly opened restaurant in Washington, DC, Cuba Libre hopes to raise money to help restore, revitalize and preserve the National Mall. On Thursday, October 28th 100% of the food sales during dinner service will be donated to help restore America's Front Yard.

WHEN: Thursday, October 28, 2010 from 4 p.m. to 11 p.m. Reservations are recommended.

WHERE: Cuba Libre Restaurant & Rum Bar is located on 801 A 9th Street, NW just two blocks from the Gallery Place/Chinatown Metro station. Valet parking is also available in the evenings for $12 per car. For reservations or additional information please call (202) 408-1600 or visit www.CubaLibreRestaurant.com.

ABOUT TRUST FOR THE NATIONAL MALL:

The Trust for the National Mall is official non-profit partner of the National Park Service dedicated to restoring and improving the National Mall. The National Mall is the nation's premier national park, but it suffers from more than 30 years of neglect and dwindling resources. The current deferred maintenance budget exceeds $400 million, and the Trust estimates that the park needs an additional $300 million in visitor improvements. For more information on the Trust for the National Mall, please visit www.nationalmall.org.

###