

For Immediate Release
Contact: Heather Freeman (800) 987-9806
Heather@Heatherfreeman.com

Clyde's & Old Ebbitt Grill Fundraising Efforts to Support Camp Moss Hollow

Washington, D.C. (June 16, 2011) —Diners visiting any of the Clyde's restaurants in the DC area, as well as Old Ebbitt Grill, can help raise funds for John Kelly of The Washington Post's Send a Kid to Camp Campaign which sends area youth to Camp Moss Hollow. Every Wednesday, through July 27, Clyde's restaurants & Old Ebbitt Grill will feature a special Send a Kid to Camp specialty dish. Order it and a portion of the proceeds will go to Camp Moss Hollow. The weekly special changes but one is example is the new Clyde's burger made from local, all natural, grass-fed beef cattle.

This is the 45th anniversary of Camp Moss Hollow, the camp that readers of The Washington Post support each summer. The Send a Kid to Camp Campaign goal is $500,000 for Camp Moss Hollow. Clyde's Restaurants and Old Ebbitt Grill are proud to be an annual part of this charity event. Clyde's Restaurant Group owns 13 restaurants throughout greater Washington, D.C., including 1789, Old Ebbitt Grill, The Hamilton, and many others. For more information, please visit their website <http://www.clydes.com/main/index.cfm>. More information about Camp Moss Hollow can be found at http://familymattersdc.org/index.php/what_we_do_matters/yd_the_hollow/.

###