Port City Brewing Company To Pour Anniversary Beer February 3rd

Alexandria, Virginia --- Bill Butcher, founder of Port City Brewing Company located at 3950 Wheeler Avenue in Alexandria, VA, is pleased to announce a limited edition anniversary beer appropriately titled ONE. A single 30-barrel batch of ONE Belgian Imperial Stout has been brewed, and will be available at select DC area restaurants this February exclusively by draft. Additionally, to mark their first anniversary, Port City is coordinating a region-wide synchronized tapping at 6 PM on Friday, February 3rd. The list of participating restaurants is posted on Port City Brewing Company's Facebook and Twitter feeds, and prices vary by restaurant.

Celebrating its first anniversary, the 11,000 square-foot craft brewery is dedicated to bringing great quality, innovative, handmade craft beers to the DC and Mid Atlantic market. Port City produces world-class quality beer, brewing four year-round beers along with a rotating seasonal selection. ONE Belgian Imperial Stout was crafted to stand up to Washington's gloomy winter months and incorporates West Malle Trappist Yeast to provide its Belgian character. ONE showcases aromas of Bakers chocolate and dried fruits and flavors of espresso, dark Swiss chocolate, spice and orange zest give this dark, strong beer its richness and unique character. The mixture of malt and hops include Pilsner, Crystal, Black, Chocolate malts, roast barley, Magnum, Chinook, Columbus, Amarillo, Fuggles, and Liberty.
